custody or battery?

Kevin Kramer came into the lobby to speak to an officer about a now escalating custody issue and an escalated incident that happened just minutes ago. I, Sergeant Raymond, brought Kevin in the interview room. I asked him to tell me what was going on and the following is a summary of what he told me. He said that he went to pick up his daughter, Madeline Kramer, from her mother, Julia Eickmeier, at her residence located at 2830 4th St. Lot #13, Peru. Kevin was holding Madeline and a bag of her toys when Julia began questioning him about who would be watching Madeline while he was working this weekend. Kevin told her that he had a music festival to attend in Lexington Illinois and that he had friends and parents of their friends to watch her while he played. Julia told him she has "first right of refusal" meaning she should be first to watch her in the event Kevin has to work. She then grabbed the bag of toys out of Kevin's hand and threw them into the yard causing Madeline to cry. Kevin put Madeline down and began picking up the toys. Julia then grabbed Madeline and would not give her back to Kevin. Julia then began screaming at Kevin for him to get off of her property which caused Madeline to cry even more. While still holding Madeline Julia pushed Kevin backwards causing more crying from Madeline. Julia then took her into the house and locked the door.

Case Report

Get copy of phone call.

Kevin said that she is becoming more aggressive and the situation is only getting worse. He wants something to be done. I told Kevin that I would refer the incident to the State's Attorney Officer for a possible Battery charge and that I would call the Department of Children and Family Services to report the incident. I asked Kevin to complete a written statement and he did. (see attached) I completed a Peru Police Department Referral to State's Attorney Office and gave Kevin a copy explaining he would need to call them next week. Kevin said that he would and left the station.

I then went to Julia's residence and she was not home and her car was gone. I came back to the station and called Julia and she answered. I asked her to tell me what happened today with Kevin and the following is a summary of what she told me. She said that Kevin came to get Madeline and she asked him if he was working this weekend to which he said he was. Kevin told her he was going to a "huge music festival" in Lexington Illinois and that he had friends to watch Madeline. Julia told him that she had "right to first refusal" when he had to work and that it was not safe for her to be at such a "huge music festival". She told him he could not take Madeline. I asked her if she threw Madeline's toys and she said that they were standing in the street and she asked him repeatedly to move to the yard because it "wasn't safe". He refused and she grabbed the toy bag and "tossed" it into the yard. She said that she then took Madeline inside. I asked her if she pushed Kevin and she said that he would not get off of her property. We. She said that she asked him 6 times to leave and he was refusing. I asked her several times if she pushed I said NC him and she continued to tell me he would not get off her property. She then told me finally that she did not push him and immediately told me that he pushed her a week ago.

I told her that I was asking about today and that I only wished for her to tell me what took place (said) no today. She continued on about other things and I asked if she would like to come in to fill out a written (didn't) statement. She did not answer so I just kept asking the same question until she finally said no really but want- she would. She then told me that she would come in when she felt like it and on her time. I told her that I go 2 would just put that she didn't want to do one and I hung up the phone. The conversation at that point was start going in circles and she was not answering my questions. lie and I said no: When she asked if I wanted to, but I was not. I attached the referral to this report and it will be sent to the State's Attorney Office for review of a Battery charge. I called the Department of Children and Family Services and made a report to Linda Schubert who said they will take this as a risk of harm report and have someone investigate within 24 hours. I was given an Intake number of 13207729.
